PRESENTED BY MARITES BALILI

Welcome

Thank you for considering Marites Balili Studio.

This guide was thoughtfully created to share my approach to intentional Brand Strategy, Minimalist Website Design, and Marketing Funnel Design for Women-Led Wellness Brands.

I work with yoga teachers, wellness entrepreneurs, retreat businesses, and intentional lifestyle founders who value calm luxury, thoughtful storytelling, and a meaningful online presence.

My approach blends strategy, aesthetics, and emotional connection to create websites and marketing funnels that feel welcoming, elevated, and aligned with your vision.

My goal is not simply to design a beautiful website, but to create a thoughtful online experience that helps your audience feel calm, connected, confident, and inspired to take the next step.

What You'll Need Before We Start

What You'll Need Before We Start

To help ensure a smooth and organized project, it's helpful to prepare the following:

- Business details and services
- Website content (if available)
- Brand inspiration or examples you love
- Brand assets (logo, colors, fonts, and images)
- Website goals and marketing funnel objectives
- Preferred features or functionality
- A domain name and hosting account (if you have one). If you're starting from scratch, I'll guide you in selecting the best option for your business.

Don't worry if you don't have everything prepared yet.

Whether you're starting with a clear vision or just an idea, I'll guide you through the process and help you prepare everything needed before we begin designing your online presence.

Communication

Communication is handled primarily through:

- Email
- Scheduled calls (if needed)
- Organized project updates

Clear communication helps create a calm and intentional experience for both sides.

Important Notes

- Projects begin after deposit/payment confirmation.
- Timelines may vary depending on feedback response time.
- Additional revisions or pages may require additional investment.
- Final files and website access are transferred upon project completion.
- Clients may cancel before the project start date. Once strategy and design work have commenced, payments are non-refundable.

Frequently Asked Questions

Do you offer payment plans?

Projects may be secured with either full payment or a 50% deposit to reserve your project, with the remaining balance due prior to website launch.

Do you provide website copywriting?

Strategic messaging guidance may be included to create a cohesive and emotionally aligned website experience.

Will my website be mobile-friendly?

Yes. Websites are designed to be responsive across desktop, tablet, and mobile devices.

Can you redesign an existing website?

Yes — redesign projects may be accepted depending on the current website platform and goals.

Do you offer ongoing support?

Limited post-launch guidance may be included. You'll also receive 15 days of post-launch support. Additional support can be discussed if needed.

Will I be able to update my website after launch?

Yes. Your website will be designed with a user-friendly structure, and guidance will be provided for basic updates.

Frequently Asked Questions

What types of businesses do you work with?

I specialize in working with women-led wellness brands, including wellness coaches, yoga teachers, nutritionists, holistic practitioners, therapists, and other purpose-driven businesses seeking a calm, intentional online presence.

What services do you offer?

I offer strategic Brand Strategy, Minimalist Website Design, and Marketing Funnel Design. Whether you're building your first online presence or refining an existing one, each service is thoughtfully tailored to your business goals. With one round of revision only.

Can I book only a marketing funnel?

Absolutely.

Whether you need a standalone marketing funnel or a complete website and funnel experience, we'll create a solution that aligns with your goals and supports your client journey.

What platform do you build on?

Websites are designed and built on WordPress and Elementor while marketing funnels are created using Systeme.io, making it easy to capture leads, automate emails, and guide visitors through a seamless client experience.

How long does a project take?

Every project is unique, but most websites and marketing funnels are completed within 4-6 weeks, depending on the project scope and timely client feedback.

Frequently Asked Questions

Do I need to have everything prepared before we start?

Not at all.

Our discovery and strategy process is designed to help bring clarity to your vision. If you already have brand assets and content, we'll incorporate them. If not, I'll guide you through what's needed before design begins.

What happens after my website or funnel launches?

Once everything is reviewed and approved, your website or funnel is launched with confidence. You'll also receive 15 days of post-launch support to answer questions, assist with minor adjustments, and ensure everything is running smoothly.

How do we get started?

It begins with a conversation.

Simply click Start Your Project, share a few details about your business, and we'll explore whether we're the right fit to work together.

Ready to create a calm, strategic online presence that attracts and books aligned clients and supports your long-term growth?

Your website should do more than simply look beautiful.

Together, we'll create an intentional online experience that reflects your brand, builds trust, and guides the right people toward working with you.

Whether you're launching something new or refining an existing business, every decision is rooted in strategy, clarity, and meaningful connection.

Whether you have questions about the process, want to discuss your vision, or are ready to begin, I'd love to hear from you.
